

Car Insurance Claims Analysis

Highly Rural

Highly Urban

Rural

Suburban

Urban

37.54K
Claims

1.88bn
Total Claim Amount

50.03K
Avg Claim Amount

147.25K
Avg Household Income

17K
Parents

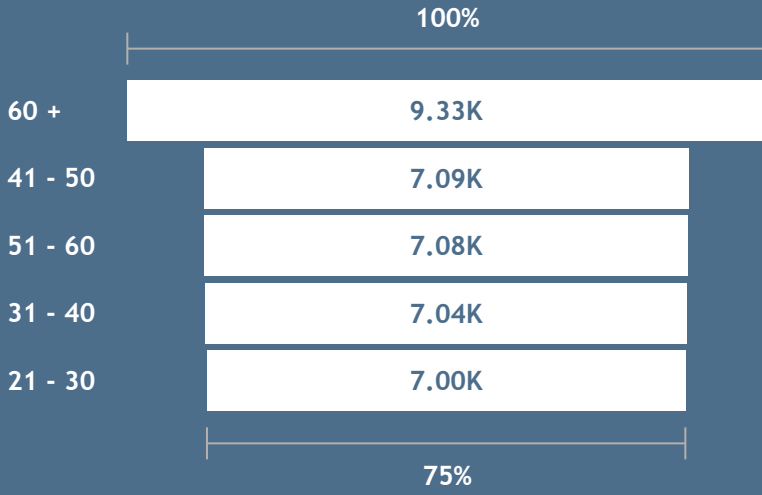

Customer claims by Marital Status

Customer claims by Gender

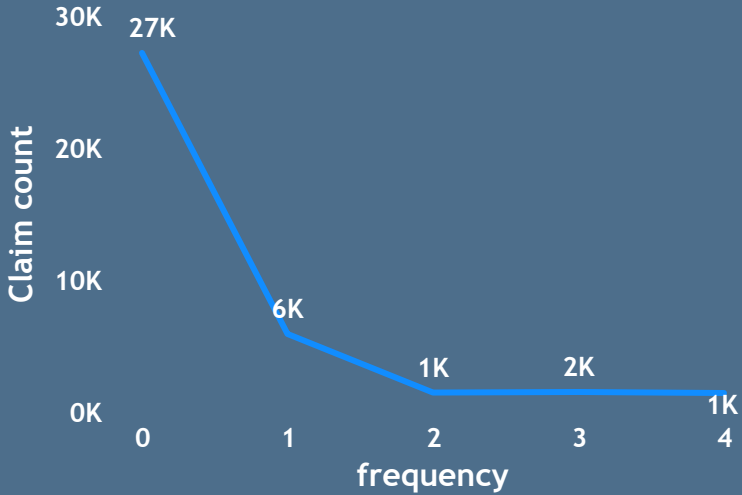

Customer claims by Age group

Customer claims by Education Level

Claim Frequency

Cars by Age

Claim Amount by Car Age

Claim Amount by Car Usage Type

Claim Amount by Car

Customers driving same cars

Car Make

All

Car Model

All

INSIGHTS

- The total claim amount for 37.54K claims is 1.88 billions while the average claim amount is around 50K with an average household income of around 147K.
- Claims are nearly balanced between male (around 49%) and female (around 50%).
- Around 80% of the claim amount is from private car usage.
- Customers with Single marital status and holding Bachelors degree made the highest number of claims.
- Around 17K customers are parents and most of the cars are run by one member only.
- Most of the claims are by the customers with age of above 60.
- On the whole, crimson color cars has the highest average claimed amount.
- Cars that are manufactured 73 years ago has the highest average claim amount.
- Most of the cars are manufactured 10 - 20 years back.
- Around 27K customers claimed the insurance for the first time.